Welcome to NMPAT Holloway Centre

Holloway Music and Performing Arts Centre is one of ten regional centres, which are part of the award-winning Northamptonshire Music and Performing Arts Trust (NMPAT). We offer a wide range of instrumental ensemble experience at beginner through to senior level, dance, drama and musical theatre opportunities, and support for graded music exams, for children and young people aged three years upwards. Pupils are able to borrow the following instruments to use in Centre activities: ukuleles, recorders and string instruments.

NMPAT has an outstanding reputation across the UK for the quality and breadth of music tuition and opportunities for the young people of Northamptonshire. Classes are inclusive and Holloway centre has a proud tradition of appearing at regional and national events as part of the Music for Youth annual season, as well as regular centre concerts in Northampton.
